

Privacy Policy

The Carcinoid Cancer Foundation's (CCF) Privacy Policy is designed to help you understand how we collect and use the personal information you decide to share, and help you make informed decisions when using the CCF services located at its website www.carcinoid.org.

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT AND HOW DO WE USE IT?

The Carcinoid Cancer Foundation assures visitors to this website that their privacy is respected. No information of any kind regarding individual visitors to the site, including e-mail addresses, will be given or sold to any third party without the express written consent of the visitor, unless required by law.

The acquisition of visitor e-mail addresses by third parties for any purpose including that of solicitation is expressly forbidden. This practice in many jurisdictions may constitute a breach of law. Visitors to this site who believe that their e-mail address has been used in contradiction to the policies as stated above are encouraged to immediately contact the carcinoid [at] carcinoid [dot] org of the Carcinoid Cancer Foundation website.

SECURITY MEASURES

The Carcinoid Cancer Foundation does receive data that tracks website and aggregates page use by visitors, but does not track individual visitor's individual page use. Cookies (information that is stored on the visitors' computer hard drives and utilized by the site) may be used, but will only be used to record certain visitor preferences and for certain security purposes. No such visitor or cookie information will be given or sold to any third party without the express written consent of the visitor, unless required by law.

The Carcinoid Cancer Foundation has partnered with Network for Good to securely process your online credit card donation via the Network for Good Donor Advised Fund. This transaction will appear on your credit card statement as "Network for Good."

The Carcinoid Cancer Foundation takes appropriate precautions to protect our site visitors who make online donations using industry standard 128/256 Secure Socket Layer (SSL) encryption. You are able to see when the SSL encryption is active either by the "padlock" icon at the top or bottom of your browser.

DO NOT SEND PERSONAL INFORMATION VIA E-MAIL

Be advised that e-mail and other general Internet communication are not completely secure from the possibility of sophisticated electronic eavesdropping. Please do not send us any personal information in your e-mail that you would be uncomfortable sharing with others. E-mail can be intercepted and a copy of your message may be stored on the computer from which you are writing.

DISCLAIMER

The information and services provided by Carcinoid Cancer Foundation are for informational purposes only. The information and services are not intended to be substitutes for professional medical advice, diagnosis or treatment. If you are ill, see a doctor immediately!
