Lodging Resources

These organizations help to provide housing for patients and families during their medical treatments.

- \(NAHHH\) National Association of Hospital Hospitality Houses

NAHHH is a membership organization of hospital hospitality house type programs. This site provides a directory of lodgings for families of hospital patients and/or hospital outpatients, struggling with a medical crisis. The National Association of Hospital Hospitality Houses is a network of houses all around the United States. They provide lodging and support for people of all ages and all walks of life who are dealing with medical emergencies far from their homes. Hospitality Houses have been one of the world's best kept secrets. Won't you please help these "homes that help and heal" become known to the world?"

The toll free telephone number is: 800-542-9730

- Carcinoid cancer patients and their families can find help and hope if they have to travel far from home for treatments. Each American Cancer Society Hope Lodge "offers cancer patients and their families a free, temporary place to stay when their best hope for effective treatment may be in another city. Not having to worry about where to stay or how to pay for lodging allows Hope Lodge guests to focus on the most important thing: getting well." And a Hope Lodge also provides "a nurturing, home-like environment where patients and caregivers can retreat to private rooms or connect with others who are going through many of the same experiences."
